Crowd Churches As Invasion Starts

Life went on in Andover Tuesday, and it looked as if, on the surface, nothing was happening in the world any more than was happening every other day. The general atmosphere seemed to be: "Well, let's keep on working."

Some Andover residents heard the 12:30 German announcements that the invasion was on, but not until about 5:15, when the fire alarm rang a series of blows, did most of the populace realize that D-Day had arrived. The various mills' air-raid alarms came shortly after.

The Andover Council of Churches immediately put through their D-Day plan, and at one o'clock some 3500 Bulletins printed during the morning at the Townsman Press were being distributed to Boy Scouts for further distribution throughout town. It announced the special church service to be held at the Free church that evening and also the services being held at St. Augustine's church. Tuesday morning the latter church always has a special mass for servicemen, but the attendance this week was heavier than usual, showing that at that early hour the seriousness of the day had already stirred people to prayer. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament continued during the day, and there was a well-attended Holy Hour in the evening. The Free church service in which all the ministers took part was an impressive one, with a very heavy attendance.

Indian Ridge Group To Hold Lawn Party

A benefit lawn party sponsored by the Indian Ridge Community Association for the Andover Servicemen's Fund will be held on Saturday, June 10, at 3:15 on Red Spring road. There will be pony rides, arts and crafts table, bakery table, and white elephant table, and refreshments.

The committee: Mrs. John R. Sullivan, Mrs. Edwin Anderson, Mrs. John Deyermund, Mrs. John Keith, Mrs. David Milne, Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Isabel Valentine.

IN BOND PARADE

Andover Post No. 8, American Legion, has accepted the invitation of Lawrence Post No. 15 to participate in the bond drive parade on Sunday, June 11. Members of Andover post will meet at 3 p. m. at the Legion rooms where transportation will be furnished to Lawrence. A large attendance is desired.

War Bond Drive To Start Monday

MAY DATE BONDS FOR D-DAY

It was announced yesterday that anyone buying war bonds in the period between June 12 and 17, the first few days of the Fifth War Loan drive, may have the bonds dated, June 6—the date which it is hoped will go down in world history as one of the world's most important dates.

With a splendid record behind it, Andover, on next Monday, will enter its Fifth War Loan drive. In the last drive the town over-subscribed both its over-all and its E bond quota, the latter being a really remarkable record. In this drive the quota for E bonds will be $313,200, and the overall quota will be $2,446,436. The Fourth War Loan quota was only $1,850,000, but the town raised $2,484,968.

Phillips Academy's students raised $22,328 in a special contest with Exeter in the Fourth drive, but despite the fact that this fund will not be available this time, it is expected that the townspeople will go well over the quota because of the invasion.

Mr. James Gould, treasurer of Phillips Academy, has agreed to serve as chairman again, although frequent calls from town will limit his activities. However, he has chosen a committee which it is expected will carry on for him during his absence. It includes Edward Anderson, Wallace Brimer, Harry Emmons, Louis Finger, John Greco, Elmer Grover, Bartlett H. Hayes, Guy B. Howe, David R. Lawson, Mrs. Harold Leitch, Rev. John Moses, Samuel Resnik and Mrs. W. T. Rich, Jr.

Paper Collection To Be Held Sunday

Andover's only summer house-to-house salvage collection will take place next Sunday afternoon starting at 1:00 o'clock when volunteer truck drivers, assisted by Punchard High School boys and Andover Junior High School boys will make a canvass of the entire town for paper.

Each householder is urged to get all magazines and papers tied up in bundles and out on the curb by noontime.

FUEL OIL NOTICE

Applications for fuel oil for the winter of 1944-45 have been mailed to all central and space heater consumers. Application forms properly filled in must be returned to the Andover Rationing Board at once, as coupons are now being issued.

Accept Resignation Of Bradlee Principal

The resignation of Miss Jane Fitzhenry, principal of the Bradlee school, was accepted with regrets at the school committee meeting Tuesday evening. The committee also granted a leave of absence to William McDonald, high school teacher, who has accepted a lieutenant junior grade commission in the Naval Reserve.

An inter-departmental matter was finally settled when the school committee voted to appoint Miss Evelyn Robinson as school librarian effective as of January 1st, 1945. She has been acting in this capacity, but her salary has been paid by the library trustees since they had originally appointed her to the library staff.

Reappointments were made as follows: school janitors: Fred L. Collins, Punchard high; William Snyder, Junior high; William Stirling, Memorial auditorium-gymnasium; James Faldie, fireman; Edward O'Hagan, night fireman and grounds-keeper; George F. Symonds, night janitor at central schools; Robert V. Deyermund, Stowe and Jackson; Henry Todd, Shawshen; William G. McDermitt, Bradlee; Davis McKee, Indian Ridge; William B. Corliss, West Center and Stanley Chlebowski, North school.

Bus drivers: Alvah Wright, Rudolph Johnson, and Chester Abbott. Truant officer, John Campbell. Superintendent's clerk, Miss Esther Bryant.

Andover Garden Club Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Andover Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Horace Poynter recently. The subject was Conservation and the speaker, Mrs. Leslie E. Lynde, vice-president of Conservation and Roadside Improvement Committee.

A box luncheon was enjoyed with dessert and coffee served by the hostesses. In the afternoon a pilgrimage was made to members' gardens.

The following officers were elected for the coming year 1944-45: president, Mrs. Charles W. Arnold; vice-president, Mrs. M. Phillips Graham; recording secretary, Mrs. Miles S. Malone; corresponding secretary, Mrs. James K. Dow; treasurer, Mrs. Nathaniel Stowers; directors, Mrs. Frank H. Paige, to serve 1 year, Mrs. Annette Curran, to serve 2 years; publicity, Miss Anne B. Penniman; horticulture, Miss Bessie P. Goldsmith; conservation, Mrs. Horace M. Poynter; nominating committee, Mrs. Henry S. Hopper; hospitality committee, Mrs. Guy B. Howe; programme, Mrs. Frank M. Benton.

'44 Tax Rate Jumps to $29

Include $75,000 for Post-War Rehabilitation

A tax rate of $29.00, or $1.00 higher than last year's, was announced yesterday by the Board of Assessors, following receipt of approval by Henry F. Long, commissioner of corporations and taxation. The rate is three cents higher than the last ten years' average. It also allows for $75,000 which has been used to purchase war bonds for a postwar rehabilitation fund, so that the rate as based on 1944 expenditures alone would be considerably lower.

The expenditure figures used in computing the rate were as follows: town, $773,662.63; state, $38,446.65; county, $42,258.41; overlay, $15,305.86.

Total estimated receipts are $383,420.82. Total valuation on polls is $3916, giving a revenue of $7832; valuation on personal property, $2,096,607, yielding $60,801.60, and valuation on real estate, $14,366,177, yielding $416,619.13.

Group Departs To Enter Service

Thomas Joseph Delaney, now of Lawrence, but formerly of Ball-moral street, and William Campbell of 189 North Main street, reported to the Navy Tuesday morning.

Other men included in the same quota but who had reported previously were: Robert Lewis Prescott, 96 Poor street; Thomas Patterson Dea, Jr., 28 Summer street, George Harlan Lyle, Woburn street.

The following reported for active duty at Fort Devens: John J. White, Jr., 18 Topping road; Alfred Alphonse Potvin, River road; Christopher John Eatough, 31 Paul Revere hall, Phillips Academy.

Punchard Graduates Tuesday Evening

The program for the Punchard graduation exercises which will be held on Tuesday at eight o'clock will be composed of the following: Essays: Salutatory and Essay—"The United States: Guardian of Liberty," by Helen Hannan; "The Red Cross: In Peace and in War," by Virginia Wood; "The Flag Is Over the Plow," by Dorothy Webb; and Essay and Valedictory—"Builders of Tomorrow," by Joan Nash. The music will consist of the Processional—"Priests' March" from Athalia by Mendelssohn, the orchestra; "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte, the Glee Club; and "The Green Cathedral," by Hahn, the Glee club.

Townpeople Honor Father Austin On His Silver Anniversary

Very Rev. Thomas B. Austin, prior and pastor of St. Augustine's church, spent a memorable day Thursday, the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the Catholic priesthood. It was a full day for the Jubilarian. In the morning a solemn high mass was celebrated with Father Austin as the celebrant, Rev. Henry B. Smith, O.S.A., deacon and Rev. Matthew McDonald, O.S.A., sub-deacon. Rev. John M. Fagan, O.S.A., of St. Mary's church, Lawrence, was the master of ceremonies, and Rt. Rev. Monsignor Jeremiah Minihan, chancellor of the Boston archdiocese, presided. The chaplains were Very Rev. Patrick Campbell, O.S.A., pastor of St. Augustine's Chapel-on-the-Hill, and Very Rev. Lorenzo Andolphi, O.S.A., pastor of the Holy Rosary church in Lawrence. Very Rev. George Walker, O.S.A., pastor of St. Lawrence's church, Lawrence, preached the sermon.

At the conclusion of the mass, Father Austin thanked the parishioners and in turn, Monsignor Minihan conveyed the congratulations of the Most Rev. Richard Cushing, administrator of the diocese, to the Jubilarian. As a special mark of distinction, the Papal Blessing of Pius XII was received.

In the evening Father Austin was given a fitting and touching testimonial by his people and friends. The program was opened by the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Highlighted by the Andover Male Choir, under the direction of J. Everett Collins, it was supplemented by tributes from prominent leaders in the town, and was very well received by the audience. The musical numbers included Annie Laurie, Song of the Marching Men, The Rose of Tralee, Bach-Gounod's

Ave Maria, God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again, My Wild Irish Rose, and Where the River Shannon Flows.

The speakers, all of them gifted with the ready humor so readily appreciated by their listeners, delighted the audience with anecdotes concerning the guest of honor.

There was a serious note to their tributes, however. Rev. Frederick B. Noss, representing the Andover Ministers Association, praised the progress that had been made under the guidance of Father Austin. Edward I. Erickson, superintendent of schools, expressed satisfaction over the spirit of cooperation that exists between the parochial school administrators and the public school system. Selectman Roy E. Hardy, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, mentioned the assistance which has always been forthcoming from Father Austin for any worthy project. Dr. Claude M. Fuess, headmaster of Phillips Academy, spoke appreciatively of the cordial relations which have always existed between the two men, and Father Austin, in turn, called attention to the fact that the boys from Phillips are outstanding in their 100% church attendance.

Rev. Matthew McDonald, O.S.A., Rev. Henry B. Smith, O.S.A., and Jeremiah J. Twomey, assistant clerk of courts, added personal tributes. The gift of the parishioners was presented by John F. O'Connell, who also acted as master of ceremonies.

Father Austin, visibly affected by the expressions of esteem, spoke briefly, thanking his friends. The program was concluded by the singing of "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name," and benediction by Father Austin.

Historical Society Meets on Saturday

The semi-annual meeting of the Andover Historical Society has been announced for next Saturday afternoon. This meeting will be held at the Archaeology building of Phillips Academy at three o'clock, when Mr. Ripley Bullen will give an account of the recent excavations in the neighborhood of Foster's Pond, with an exhibit of some of the findings. Interest in that subject has been mounting and from various sources reports are being verified as facts.

Members are urged to attend, and all others who may be interested in the Andover of an earlier day will find a cordial welcome. Those who have any knowledge of that section of our town are asked to contribute such information as they are able. It is by such co-operation that a complete story of those almost forgotten days can be written into history.

After that part of the program is completed, adjournment will be made to the Andover Historical House at 97 Main street for a social hour, where members and their guests will find a display of some of the interesting antiques, farming implements and household utensils seldom on view.

Refreshments will be served.

The society occupies the early home of Deacon Amos Blanchard, built in 1819, originally containing the land from Locke street, then known as Love lane, to the present Postoffice. At that time in the next house to the north, in what was known as the Andrews place, resided Rev. Justin Edwards, for 15 years pastor of the South church. To the south lived Squire Hazen, in the large colonial mansion, built in 1818, now known as the Pinckney house. Earlier is had been the James Locke Tavern. There were few other houses 125 years ago, some fine ancient trees, only dirt roads and little traffic—a far cry from today's Andover.

STATE GUARD TO BE INSPECTED SUNDAY

Inspection of the local State Guard unit by a State Guard officer will take place next Sunday.

Last Saturday night about thirty members of the Andover company and their guests assembled at the Andover Country Club for dinner dancing. A chicken dinner was served, and seated at the head table were: Colonel George W. Dawson and Mrs. H. Garrison Holt, Jr., Captain and Mrs. H. G. Holt, Lieutenant and Mrs. G. Clifford Emmons, Lieutenant and Mrs. Kenneth S. Minard. The program was in charge of Corporal Rody.

On Sunday the company drew their rifles at the police station and marched to the Punchard High playstead for the regular drill period, which consisted of instruction in field stripping and cleaning rifles and the practicing of open order drill.

BIRTH

A son was born to Ensign and Mrs. Phillip F. Doyle, 12 Chestnut street, on Wednesday, June 7, at the Cardinal O'Connell House, Boston. Mrs. Doyle is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Daly. Ensign Doyle is stationed at the Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Illinois.

Miss Maria Fairweather of Abbot street is enjoying several days' vacation at Marblehead.

Mrs. Mary Tateosian of Bellevue road has been advised by the appeal board that her application for relief from the zoning by-laws is being denied.

The foundation of a building has already been laid about four feet from Osgood street and Mrs. Tateosian has been advised that it will have to be moved to 20 feet from the street line. The building is to be used as a garage, for storage of farm equipment and the packing of vegetables raised in an adjacent market garden.

Hansen, 26, former resident of 123½ Main street, Andover, Massachusetts, has been awarded the First Oak Leaf Cluster (bronze) to the Air Medal "for meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in sustained operational activities against the enemy."

Lieutenant Hansen, a pilot on a B-24 Liberator bomber of the Fifteenth Army Air Force in Italy, was presented the decoration between bombing missions on German-held targets in northern Italy, Austria, Rumania, and the Balkan countries.

A former calisthenics instructor for the Sidney Hill Vanik Health club, Boston, Lieutenant Hansen entered the service May 20, 1942. Upon graduating from the Air Force Twin Engine school at Moody Field, Georgia, on August 30, 1943, he received his commission as a second lieutenant. Pug Whitcomb writes as of June 5 at 3:30 that he doesn't have a mustache, but that he did have one. We mention the date and time, because, as we remember it rather enviously, Pug was so constructed, hirsutically speaking, that on June 6 at 9 a.m. he could have had a full-grown set of handlebars.

Saw a flash of khaki in the office the other day, walked in and who do you suppose it was? Don Surette, who used to breeze in and out with his camera back in the old days. Don's been in Panama for three years and three months, and this is his first trip home. Looks swell, too. We had quite a chat about the old hurricane when we spent a couple of nights and days together photographing the wreckage, and when Don was so interested in his work that he walked into the river a couple of times to take a picture of a submerged garage. He's learned a lot of new tricks in photography since he joined up.

Paul Hood's been in, too. Paul is going up to Portsmouth, where he will shortly start serving on a new sub.

Townies Win Fifth Straight; GE Sunday

The Andover Townies defeated the 22nd Field Artillery, Harbor Defence of Camp Langdon, 17 to 1, at the Andover playstead Sunday.

The Townies made 15 hits to seven for the soldiers, who committed six errors and gave ten free passes.

Lavoie gave the visitors three hits in five innings, Del Dura one in one-third inning and McEvoy three in three and two-thirds innings. Strikeouts were: Lavoie 4, Del Duca 1, McEvoy 4.

The soldiers' team was badly depleted by transfers and furloughs, and, rather than disappoint the fans, brought the best club they could get together. To date, the soldiers, before transfers Thursday, were leading the Sunset league of New Hampshire.

Dubois featured with a triple, and pitcher Lavoie and catcher Haltmeier each hit doubles.

The leading hitters for the past five games are: Glendenning, .500; Gartside, .434; Lavoie, .400; Dubois, .375; Miller, .308.

Next Sunday the Townies meet the General Electric nine, who last year defeated the locals after going 15 games without a defeat.

The G E club has a very fast club, and should present a very good ball game to the fans next Sunday.

Arthur Moher, captain of the 1944-1945 Academy team, will rejoin the Townies, where he played outstanding ball last year.

PRESENT TUNISIAN CANTEN

and lilies of the valley.

Two sisters acted as bridesmaids,

White—Guesenberry

At a 7 p.m. candlelight service of Andover, Isobel Meek White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William White of 75 Stevens street was united in marriage to George Hampton Guesenberry, U. S. Navy, of Floyd, Virginia, on May 31 by Rev.

Frank E. Dunn.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a tight fitting bodice gown of white chiffon with very full skirt and train which was edged with allicon lace and had applied butterfly motifs of lace.
She wore a half crown cap of il-and blue sweet peas. Her headdress was a veiled coronet of pink roses.

The bridesmaids were Margaret Ruel, niece of the bride, and Dorothy Daley, both of Andover. They were dressed alike in pink and blue frosted organdy and wore headdresses similar to that of the matron of honor. They carried shower bouquets of pink roses.

The flower girl, little Nancy White, niece of the bride, wore an ankle length gown of yellow frosted organdy and carried a colonial bouquet.

berry, and the usher staff, which try of the church, followed by open house at the home of the bride's her parents for the duration.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Peters celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Wednesday with an "open

1894, by the late Reverend Frederick Wilson, former pastor of the Free church, and have always lived in Shawshen Village. Mr. Peters was engineer at the pumping station on Lowell street for many years before his retirement. They have one daughter, Mrs. Earl Waddington, and one granddaughter.

relatives was held from 2 to 4 in the afternoon with refreshments

50TH WEDDING CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Berry of High street celebrated their Golden wedding anniversary on Thursday.
The well known and highly esteemed couple have been residents of Andover for over thirty-five years, moving here from North Andover. Mr. Berry has been associated with the poultry business for many years. On Tuesday evening

ter of Andover and Mr. Donald W.
Carter of Weston.

by Miss Blanchard and Mr. Carter, who are graduates of Clarke School in Northampton.

NORTH SCHOOL ENROLLMENT DOWN

Enrollment at the North school for next September at the present time is expected to be only ten children, and the school committee is again faced with the problem of whether or not to keep open a one-room, six-grade school with a very small number of children. Several years ago the school was closed because of its small enrollment, but the town meeting voted to instruct the committee to reopen it after residents of the district stated that the enrollment would increase.

Editorials

Sometime you Andover boys who went ashore on the beaches of Normandy on Tuesday morning are going to come back here and you're going to try to recapture in words the pent-up feelings that you had as you crossed the Channel to make years of dark history turn bright again. And sometime as you get a chance to pause on what we hope will be a hurried trip to Berlin, you might wonder how we here at home felt when we heard the news.

We've been waiting, of course. We talked a little about it, wondered when it would happen, even thought perhaps it mightn't happen. But we didn't say much about what we thought of most; that was too near to our hearts to allow us to talk about it; it was beyond our means to do anything about it.

But we really were doing something about it, all the time. And when the news came, we did it more fervently than ever. You know, here in Andover, those of us who hadn't heard the news of the early German announcement went to bed Monday night and slept until we heard the fire alarm about 5:15 Tuesday morning. As it started we paid no more than the usual attention to it, counting to ourselves. It went to five, then six, then seven, then eight, then nine—and it didn't stop. It kept on going. Then we knew. It was the Invasion. You fellows were on your way, heading into you knew not what, certain only of one thing: that you were fighting for the right. And as that fire alarm continued, thousands of minds here at home spontaneously echoed but one thought: "God Be With Them." Somehow, as you went farther away from us, you were nearer than ever.

We know that you too asked for God's help, and because we are in the right, we know that He will give that help, every step of the way from Normandy to Berlin, from a world of war to a world of peace.

This Sober Town

The young British sailor who lost his arm while engaged in victory shift work at the Tyer Rubber company recently, thinks a lot of the Bulova Watch company and its local representative, John Grecoe. Some friends of the young man, knowing that he had always wanted a Bulova watch, went to Mr. Grecoe with their problem, and it turned out to be a problem for him too, because he had sold his quota. However, John wrote to the Bulova people, and told them of the incident. This week the young man received a watch from the Bulova company, made especially for him.

WINS WAR BOND FOR COMPOSITION

Andover Boy Wounded

J. William Holland, MM 3/c, USN, has been wounded, according to an announcement received Wednesday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Holland, 11 Dartmouth road.

His mother last heard from him when she received a cablegram from him Mothers' Day, at which time he gave no indication of any injuries. He had met two local boys when he was in England, Edward McGrath, serving with the Military Police, and Robert Auchterlonie, who is serving with the Seabees.

Bill entered the Navy March 9, 1943, when he was a senior at Pynchard, receiving his diploma in absentia in June. His basic training was received at Newport, R. I., and from there he was sent to school in Richmond, Va. One year after entering the service, on March 9 of last year, he sailed for England.

Air-Raid Sunday?

No Air Raid?

If there is to be an air-raid test in Andover Sunday, very few people this morning knew anything about it. Chief Warden Leonard James had received no notification and if he didn't, no warden could.

There will definitely be a test in Lawrence, Lowell and some other cities, with paper bombs being dropped.
